

UNITED STATES COURT OF INTERNATIONAL TRADE

In Re: CORONAVIRUS COVID-19

:
:
:

ORDER

The U.S. Court of International Trade (Court) continues to evaluate and adjust its response to the COVID-19 virus in accordance with guidance from public health authorities, including the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). The Court will update the requirements for individuals entering the Courthouse consistent with the CDC guidance, without necessarily amending or vacating this Order. Any such changes to entry requirements will be posted on the Court’s website: <https://www.cit.uscourts.gov/>.

In order to continue to safeguard the health and safety of all visitors to, and employees of, the Court, it is hereby

ORDERED that the March 11, 2022 Order (In Re: CORONAVIRUS COVID-19 ORDER CONCERNING FACE MASKS/COVERINGS AND SCREENINGS), is hereby rescinded; it is further

ORDERED that, regardless of vaccination or booster status, no one shall enter the Courthouse if they are feeling sick, have a fever, and/or other symptoms associated with COVID-19,¹ have tested positive for COVID-19 within the past week, or have been advised to self-quarantine by a doctor, hospital, or health agency; it is further

ORDERED that policies regarding masks or face-coverings, physical distancing, and other prevention measures, within a courtroom, jury room, or chambers, shall be determined by the presiding judge; and it is further

ORDERED that Court Security Officers are authorized to enforce the above listed requirements and deny entry to, or expel, non-complying individuals.

This Order shall be effective September 29, 2022, and will remain in effect until amended or vacated.

/s/ Mark A. Barnett
Mark A. Barnett
Chief Judge

Dated: September 29, 2022
New York, New York

¹ Symptoms associated with COVID-19 include cough, shortness of breath, fever, and recent loss of taste or smell.