

UNITED STATES COURT OF INTERNATIONAL TRADE

Closure of the United States Court of International Trade to Observe the National Day of Mourning for President James “Jimmy” Earl Carter, Jr.

ORDER

By order of the Chief Judge, the United States Court of International Trade will be closed on Thursday, January 9, 2025, in observance of the National Day of Mourning for President James “Jimmy” Earl Carter, Jr.

For the purposes of the computation of time and motions to enlarge time under U.S. Court of International Trade Rule 6, January 9, 2025, will be considered a “legal holiday.”

Dated: 1/2/2025
New York, New York

/s/ Mark A. Barnett
Chief Judge Mark A. Barnett